

Consignment Sales

AutoBarn Classic Cars takes the hassle out of selling your collector car. We take professional photographs in our own automotive studio. Then we post those images on our website and numerous automotive websites and handle all incoming emails and phone calls. We do all the dirty work, and send you a check when the car sells! It's easy, and allows you more time to search for that next great project car! We display your cars in our 60,000 square foot showroom.

Buy

It's no secret: Investing in collector cars is a great investment. The Wall Street Journal and New York Times have written about how investing in the right collector car can easily out pace the stock market and inflation. If you desire a collectible automobile, give AutoBarn Classic Cars a call. We have a huge, diverse and ever-changing inventory of classics, street rods, muscle cars and special interest vehicles. Please visit our web site to view our complete inventory.

Who We Are

AutoBarn Classic Cars and Collector Car Storage was started by a couple of Charlotte, N.C. car collectors who share the same passion as you. Too often, though, the fun of owning a rare automobile is quickly extinguished when it comes time to sell; all those phone calls and broken appointments with tire-kickers. We decided to make a difference in the industry by providing a simple way to market collector cars to a mass audience. We know you'll like the results!
